BLACK MALE WEARING A BASEBALL CAP ARGUING WITH THE CLERK AND THE CLERK PULLED OUT A GUN ON THE CUSTOMER, THERE IS A TWO MINUTE DELAY AND THE COMPLAINANT IS ANOTHER CUSTOMER. DISPATCH SPOKE WITH EMPLOYEE WHO STATES, THERE WERE TWO CUSTOMERS WHO WERE BEING VERBALLY DISRUPTIVE, THEY LEFT WALKING TOWARDS THE LIBBY BRIDGE, BOTH ARE BLACK MALES, ONE WEARING ALL BLACK CLOTHING, AND THE OTHER CLERK ONLY REMEMBERS HE WAS WEARING A HAT. THERE IS A LANGUAGE BARRIER BETWEEN CLERK AND DISPATCHERS.

Upon my arrival, I spoke to the clerk who related the following: 2 people came in together and went the first one attempted to purchase items, he did not have enough money. The other male said here I'll pay for it. The clerk gave the first guy the change back and he left. When the second male paid for his items, he accused the clerk of stealing his money. The clerk told him he gave the money to the first male. The second male became irate and started yelling profanities. The clerk exited the register area and told the male he had to leave. When the male refused to leave, the clerk admitted he pushed the male towards the door. As the male was yelling, another male came in and told the other male to leave and that he would call the police. The clerk told them to call the police and both parties left. The clerk denied pulling a firearm on the parties and stated there was not one in one in the store. The clerk stated the parties come into the store a lot but he does not know their names. When in the store, they call each other brother, but he does not know if they are related. The clerk wanted nothing further at this time. The area was checked for the 2 males without locating them.
