MALE IN THE STORE IS THREATENING THE CALLER. THE MALE STOLE A WATER AND IS NOW SWEARING AT THE EMPLOYEE. THE MALE IS SPRAYING WATER AT THE WINDOW. THE B/MALE IS IN A PINK OUTFIT, AND HAS A YELLOW CAR HE IS OUTSIDE. Upon responding to the store, I, spoke with the clerk who advised that the male in question entered the store and went to the back of the store selected a water and drank the water. The customer then selected another water and proceeded to the counter to pay. The clerk then advised him that it was three (3) dollars for the waters. The customer then handed the clerk a credit card and when the clerk asked for ID, he became upset. Since the customer did not have an ID, the clerk kept the credit card. This was when the customer became upset and irate and spit on the window and then walked out. Upon trying to speak with the customer he became upset with officers and began yelling racial slurs at the police. The customer when asked for his name, he advised me he was Whitney Houston. I advised him that he could be arrested for providing false information and his friend provided his real name and information. The friend then proceeded inside and paid the clerk 2 of the 3 dollars that owed. The clerk accepted the payment. The parties were advised of criminal trespassing other than the party not on scene who could return to pick up his credit card with proper ID. The parties advised that they would be back before saying several more racially motivated slurs. At this time, no further police action is requested and the clerk will call if they return. TH505
