Officers spoke with the male, Kenyard Drake. Drake attempted to purchase Black & Mild cigars and a few other items from Prime Station. The cashier asked for Drake's ID to verify his age. Drake, who is 19 years old, became upset because he always buys his cigars from Prime Station and never is asked for is ID. Drake left Prime Station and walked across the street to 7-11 to purchase the items. His pre-paid card was declined. Drake believed the card declined because Prime Station had swiped it earlier. He walked back to Prime Station and demanded a refund. Officers spoke with the manager at Prime Station and he said the card had not been swiped. The owner at Prime Station assured us that he would refund any money taken from Drake's card. Drake was advised to check the balance on the pre-paid card to verify if funds had been removed before receiving a refund. He was also notified that any future visits to Prime Station will be considered trespassing.
