MALE IN THE LOBBY TO REPORT HIS SON MARK CHAPEK DOB 8/24/1989 STOLE CDs FROM A BASEMENT THAT THE COMPLAINANT STORES PRODUCTS IN THAT HE THEN SELLS ON EBAY. AE. On Thursday, 8/24/17, at 0855 hrs, I, Ptl. Carmine #535, was dispatched to the MHPD Lobby for a report of a theft from a residence. I spoke with the complainant, Jon Chapek, who stated his son, Mark Chapek, who resides at 16226 Edgewood Ct., a condominium he owns, stole from him. John stated Mark took CDs from his basement that he was storing there and sold them. John stated he only knew the CDs were missing because he was trying to sell them on eBay and went to go through them on Monday, 8/21/17. John stated when he was there Mark gave him a bag with the CDs in it and told him he was not trying to sell them or take them. John stated he left the bag there with the CDs until Wednesday, 8/23/17. When he took the bag home and looked through it he could not find some of the items. John stated when he confronted Mark about it that he denied it. John checked the local CD/Game exchange but they stated they did not buy any CDs matching the ones missing. John stated he was told the same thing when he went to the CD/Game exchange in Solon. Jon stated he looked on Amazon and found the CDs that were missing for sale by a retailer named "cdgamesmaple" and his daughter bought one of the CDs that she believed was hers because the original one had the artist's signature on the front. John will follow up with me if the CD is the original and they can identify where the CD was shipped from in order to further investigate the matter. AC535
